WHEN JOKES GO TOO FAR

"Joke"	Response
"Women are too emotional to be leaders, haha."	"That's a sexist remark. It's important to support and respect people regardless of their gender."
"I don't mind gay people, as long as they don't try to hit on me, haha."	"Making jokes like that can make LGBTQ+ people feel unsafe. It's important to respect everyone."
"Those Hispanics are always taking our jobs, lol."	"Actually, that's just a stereotype and it's unfair to blame a whole group for that."
"Muslims are basically terrorists, right?"	"That's really harsh. We shouldn't label an entire religion as violent."
